

Awesomeness of Marriage

Creating a Culture of Love: Differences can Unite

Join us at this annual event to celebrate the love between husband and wife in their relationship journey. Whether you are about to get married or already married, there is always something to learn about appreciating each other's differences.

Saturday, 22 Feb 2025

Welcome: 1:30pm

Guest speakers / Reception: 2-4pm

After the presentation, enjoy a bountiful selection of delicious refreshments!

Kintore College & Cultural Centre

75 Charles St West, Toronto, ON

$45 / couple

Fill in the registration form

For more information, contact AOM@pev.ca

Speakers

Our guest speakers will share their wisdom and experience and you will have the opportunity to ask them about the secrets to creating a culture of love and valuing each other's uniqueness.

Cristina Piñeros

Cristina has been married for 20 years and has 3 children. She has a strong foundation in social service work and psychology, complemented by specialized training in brain mapping and neurofeedback. Cristina also has counselling experience and is currently a Program Coordinator for a youth employment program. She has demonstrated dedication and passion for supporting and empowering individuals in their personal and professional development.

Jim & Sheila Milway

Jim & Sheila met at St Michael's College and have been in the GTA ever since. Jim is recently retired and has served many people throughout his career in management consulting, insurance, economic research and policy and finally as Chancellor of Temporal Affairs at the Archdiocese of Toronto. Sheila has been at home with the kids and is now spending time participating in four book clubs and with her grandchildren. They are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this year.